- 1.2 These PTC are the Technical Terms and Conditions in accordance with the General Business Terms and Conditions (the “GBTC”) of the Bank and form an integral part of each individual agreement concluded between the Bank and the Client, provided such individual agreement refers to them. The Bank publishes the PTC at the Bank’s various Operating Premises and on the Bank’s Website and may be amended as needed.
- 1.3 The capitalised terms used in these PTC shall have the meaning defined below in part III (Explanation of Terms) of these PTC or in the GBTC.
- 1.4 The Client is authorised to access funds on an account based on a written payment order (i.e. on forms approved by the Bank) or based on the electronic payment order in accordance with the relevant contractual provisions via the Bank’s electronic distribution channels, using an application of an authorized provider of the indirect payment order placement service (this method may be used to deliver a payment order to the Bank only if the Client’s account can be accessed via the Internet), up to the disposable balance on the account provided that the conditions are met for cashless operations stated in the General Business Terms and Conditions (hereinafter referred to as the “GBTC”) of the Bank.
- 1.5 The Client shall deliver the payment order by the deadline set by the Bank; the day/hour of delivery of the payment order to the Bank and its form is decisive for determining the moment of acceptance of the payment order for the purpose of calculating the deadline for making payment transactions. - 1.7 On the maturity day of the payment order the Bank shall deduct funds from the Client’s account provided that all the conditions in these Terms and Conditions and in the Bank’s GBTC are met for making the payment order.
- 1.8 The Bank shall make the payment order on the required maturity day provided that there are sufficient funds in the Client’s account, the Client has had all his due receivables paid by the Bank, including unpermitted debit balances on any of the Client’s account at the Bank and the order meets the prescribed requirements. If there are insufficient disposable funds in the payer’s account or the Client has not paid his receivables to the Bank on the maturity day or on the following four working days, the payment order shall not be made. Should there be insufficient disposable funds in the payer’s account or the Client has not paid his receivables to the Bank on the maturity day for making a SIPO (public bulk collection of payments) or a payment order with a provided contractual exchange rate, the payment transaction shall not be made, i.e. the payment order is eliminated from processing on the maturity day.

- 1.12 The Bank shall not be liable for damage incurred as a result of its rejection of a payment order.
- 1.13 The Bank shall inform the Client about a withheld payment by e-mail. The Bank shall inform the Client about its decision to reject or not execute a payment order in writing in compliance with the statement delivery method selected for the account that the payment order pertained to. The Bank shall not refund unexecuted orders to the Client.

- 1.14 If, in compliance with valid legal regulations, the Bank is obliged to block the funds in the Client's account because of the attachment of, or the execution against, such account based on the decision of the relevant authority, the Bank will accept the order for payment from the blocked account only on risk of the Client and subject to the condition that on the day of delivery of the order or within the next four working days after the delivery there will be such amount of non-blocked funds in the account enabling the execution of the payment order in full. - 1.16 Until the end of the next working day after the Bank was notified by the account holder of an unauthorized payment, the Bank (i) regularizes the account from which the sum was debited so that it corresponds with the state of the account before the unauthorized transaction was debited or (ii) returns sum of the transaction including paid remuneration and loss of interests to the payer if the procedure stated in point (i) of this sentence is not applicable. Procedure according to the previous sentence is not applied if the account holder bears a loss from unauthorized payment according to these Conditions.
