Statement by Expobank CZ – 28 February 2022

In pursuing our business in the Czech Republic, we consistently uphold such values as freedom, respect, and equality. For this reason alone, we cannot condone the conflict in Ukraine.

Along with millions of people around the globe, we remain steadfast in our hope that a path to peace will soon be found to resolve the situation.

As a socially responsible firm, we are considering the best options for us to help mitigate the consequences of this conflict for civilians.

Our priority remains the smooth operation of the bank and of the services we render to our clients in the Czech Republic. We thank you, our clients, for your custom and your trust, and are looking forward to continue to work with you in the years to come. We also want to say Thank You to our employees, who continue to do stellar work in spite of the difficult circumstances, and to all our partners.
